

Early Literacy Extras:

Parents and caregivers are a child's first and best teachers. Here are some ideas and activities to try this week with your child. These five practices are designed to help your child develop literacy skills, engage your child, and enhance the bonds between you. Storytimes at the Adams County Library support Pennsylvania Early Learning Standards.

This week's theme was: Frogs

Read: Watch Miss Crystal read The Frog Who Lost His Underpants by Juliette MacIver on our Youth Services Facebook page.

Talk: Talk about what type of things do frogs do. Do they hop? Do they wear underwear? Do they smell good? What type of food do they eat? If you're looking for resources for more information, check out TrueFlix on the PowerKids page, <https://kids.powerlibrary.org>

Sing: Rhymes To Do At Home

Play: Play some leapfrog!

Write: Give the frogs on the next page some underwear!

Rhymes To Do At Home

If You're a Frog and You Know It

If you're a frog and you know it jump up
and down

If you're a frog and you know it jump up
and down

If you're a frog and you know it, and you really want to show it,

If you're a frog and you know it jump up
and down

(Repeat with: Catch a fly, Make puffy cheeks, Hop into your seat, Say "ribbit")

Five Green and Speckled Frogs

Five green and speckled frogs sat on a speckled log

Eating some most delicious bugs -- YUM
YUM!

One jumped into the pool where it was nice and cool

Then there were four green speckled frogs.

(Count down to no more frogs)
