

Are you a Dragon or a Unicorn?

What color do you like: GREEN or GOLD?

*What would you rather do: roast marshmallows over a campfire
OR pick flowers in a meadow?*

What would you rather eat: tacos & pizza OR cupcakes & cotton candy?

What would you like to be more: a firefighter OR an artist?

Where would you rather live: the mountains OR a farm?

What is your favorite fairy tale character: a knight OR a princess?

If you chose mostly answer #1, you are a Dragon!

If you choose mostly answer #2, you are a Unicorn!

Early Literacy Extras:

Parents and caregivers are a child's first and best teachers. Here are some ideas and activities to try this week with your child. These five practices are designed to help your child develop literacy skills, engage your child, and enhance the bonds between you. Storytimes at the Adams County Library support Pennsylvania Early Learning Standards.

This week's theme was: Unicorns

Read: Watch Miss Sherry read Uni the Unicorn by Amy Rosenthal and I'm a Unicorn by Mallory Loehr on our Youth Services Facebook page.

Talk: Have your child take the "Are you a dragon or a unicorn?" quiz on the next page

Sing: Rhymes to do at Home

Play: Freeze Dance! What's a unicorn party without some dancing? Play loud, energetic music and show off your best unicorn moves. When the music stops—freeze!

Write: Unicorns live near rainbows. Have your child make a rainbow and home for a unicorn. Grab some paper and markers and don't forget ROY G BIV!

Rhymes to do at Home

If you're a Unicorn

If you're a unicorn and you know it,
shake your horn

If you're a unicorn and you know it,
shake your horn

If you're a unicorn and you know it then your magic will surely show it

If you're a unicorn and you know it,
shake your horn

Stomp your hooves...
toss your mane...
prance around

I Saw 5 Little Unicorns

I saw 5 Little Unicorns
Creatures from folklore

I watched the blue one prance away and then there were 4.

I saw 4 little unicorns resting by a tree,
I watched the orange one prance away, and then there were 3.

I saw 3 little unicorns, but as near to them I drew, the green one pranced away, and then there were 2.

I saw 2 little unicorns, I watched them run and run.

the red one pranced away and then there was 1.

I saw 1 lonely purple unicorn standing in the sun.

When I blinked my eyes, it pranced away and then there were none.
