

Early Literacy Extras:

Parents and caregivers are a child's first and best teachers. Here are some ideas and activities to try this week with your child. These five practices are designed to help your child develop literacy skills, engage your child, and enhance the bonds between you. Storytimes at the Adams County Library support Pennsylvania Early Learning Standards.

This week's theme was: Fun with your Grown-up

Read: Watch Miss Karin read Saturday by Oge Mora on our Youth Services Facebook page or YouTube Channel.

Talk: Sometimes things don't go the way we want them to go. What happens when they don't? Do you get mad? Do you try to make the situation better? Talk about some ways that you can make things better and how you can react calmly.

Sing: Rhymes to do at Home

Play: The best thing is when you get to spend time with someone you love. Choose a game together and play. It can be dress-up, a board game, a counting game. Whatever you want to do together.

Write: Make a card for the person you like to spend your day with.

Rhymes to do at Home

Days of the Week

(tune: The Addams Family)

Days of the week (snap, snap) x2
Days of the week x3

There's Sunday and there's Monday
There's Tuesday and there's Wednesday
There's Thursday and there's Friday
And then there's Saturday

Five Little Mommies

(or Daddies, or Aunties, or anyone you love)

(tune: Five Little Ducks)

Five little mommies I once knew,
Nice ones, pretty ones, cool ones, too,
And the one in the middle that belongs
to me...

I love her and she loves me!

Down to the supermarket we would go,
Wibble - wobble, wibble - wobble, to and fro,

And the one in the middle that belongs
to me,

I love her and she loves me!
